

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
SOUTHERN DISTRICT OF NEW YORK

THE WAVE STUDIO, LLC, a New York
Limited Liability Corporation,

Plaintiff,

v.

GENERAL HOTEL MANAGEMENT, et al.,

Defendants.

CASE NO. 7:13-cv-09239-CS-PED

DECLARATION OF LEE KAR YIN

I, Lee Kar Yin, declare:

1. I am a Malaysian citizen, domiciled in Singapore. I am an artist, photographer, and designer. I am more commonly known by my nickname, Jr Lee. Since 1994 I have owned a series of design companies through which I have created branding and marketing materials for businesses worldwide using my original works. With all my works, I retain all intellectual property related to my works, including copyrights.

2. There were several Wave Entities under which I operated my business. Collectively, I will call them the "Wave Entities." The first was Wave-S, a sole proprietorship formed under Singapore law on February 21, 1994. I dissolved Wave-S on February 21, 2007, at which time under Singapore law all assets of Wave-S automatically reverted to me as the sole proprietor of Wave-S as of the date of its dissolution. Attached as Exhibit A is a true and correct copy of an online Singaporean record reflecting the dissolution date of Wave-S.

3. The second Wave Entity was The Wave Private Ltd., which was formed on February 8, 2002 and dissolved on August 1, 2008. The Wave Private Ltd. was owned by me and a Singaporean citizen named Chua Kiat Hong (Mr. Hong was an owner only nominally and as a favor to me because I understood at the time that Singaporean corporations had to have at least one Singaporean citizen as an owner). As part of a corporate meeting to dissolve the corporation on August 1, 2008, The Wave Private Ltd. first assigned all assets, tangible and intangible, of the corporation to me. Attached as Exhibit B is a true and correct copy of the corporate resolution transferring all assets of Wave Private Ltd. to me on August 1, 2008 and dissolving the company. As of that date, I owned all of the assets of The Wave Private Ltd. and the company then dissolved.

4. Therefore, as of August 1, 2008, I owned as an individual all of the rights the then-dissolved Wave-S and The Wave Private Ltd.

5. The third Wave Entity was formed as The Wave Design Private Ltd. on July 1, 2005. On July 27, 2007, The Wave Design Private Ltd. changed its name to The Wave Studio Private Ltd. Attached as Exhibit C is a true and correct copy of an online Singaporean record of this name change. The Wave Studio Private Ltd. still exists and is in operation today. I was (and remain) the sole shareholder of The Wave Design Private Ltd. (now called The Wave Studio Private Ltd.).

6. Plaintiff, The Wave Studio, LLC, is a limited liability company organized under the laws of the State of New York, with its principal place of business at One Barker Avenue, #542, White Plains, New York 10601 on September 1, 2011. Plaintiff is a business entity operated by me. The Wave Studio, LLC was formed to hold, manage, control, and enforce the U.S. intellectual property rights to these works, including, but not limited to, several U.S. copyright registrations.

7. Starting in about 1995, and for a period of over a decade, I worked with General Hotel Management on a number of design projects, the bulk of which were for various marketing collaterals, such as brochures, flyers, banners, etc. for various properties under the management of Defendant General Hotel Management (“GHM”). Through the various Wave Entities I produced such collaterals in response to each order placed over this period of time. These orders were most typically placed by GHM on behalf of the hotels under GHM management (the “Hotels”). The Wave Entities were the exclusive vendor hired to create the entirety of the branding and related marketing collaterals and guest experience for GHM-managed hotels, including brochures, banners, posters, flyers, press-kits, folders, magazine and press-ad-to-paper carriers, cake packaging, wine and decanter labels, amenities kits (e.g., toothbrush, shower cap, toiletry boxes), aprons, beach towels, keycards and holders, greeting cards, welcome cards, welcome back cards, postcards and packaging, location maps, umbrellas, matchboxes, notepads, pencils, drink coasters, property signages (e.g., main hotel signage, room nos. carpark, restaurant, library, the club, male and female toilets, fire escapes, lifts, lift buttons), and decals for hotel-owned vehicles.

8. The vast majority of orders made with the Wave Entities over the years were for items such as amenities kits, paper carriers, stationery, and signs, which did not require any photographs. But many orders did require photographs. Because GHM did not have a library of good quality photographs (though it did have a few usable images), I conducted photo shoots at each of the various Hotels to build a proprietary database of photographs that could be used to fulfill orders placed with the Wave Entities for marketing collaterals for the Hotels. I will collectively call these images the “Photographs.”

9. For each photo shoot, I charged for my time and expenses. I hired a cameraman named Masano Kawana to assist in each photoshoot. The contractual understanding with Mr. Kawana was that I owned all rights to the Photographs taken and that Mr. Kawana retained none, except for a limited license to use the Photographs in his marketing portfolio. An example of the agreement I had with Mr. Kawana for the photoshoots for the Hotels is attached as Exhibit D. Mr. Kawana also entered into a confirmatory assignment with me confirming this understanding and assigning any residual rights, if any, that he inadvertently retained in the Photographs. Mr. Kawana entered into a confirmatory assignment confirming that Mr. Kawana assigned the copyrights to each of the Photographs at the time they were taken. This assignment was recorded with the U.S. Copyright Office on May 20, 2015.

10. At each photoshoot, I directed and determined the entirety of each shot, from angle and lighting to subject matter, styling, shutter speed, and exposure. I would set up each shot until I was satisfied and would then instruct Mr. Kawana to press the button to capture the image.

11. Over the approximately thirteen-year period that the Wave Entities worked with GHM and the Hotels, each new marketing collaterals order began with a production estimate that set forth the contractual terms under which the relevant Wave Entity and I would fulfill the order. Exemplars of these production estimates is attached as Exhibit E. These production estimates, all no more than a page or two in length, set forth the nature of the collaterals or services being provided and contained in addition a handful of bullet-pointed terms, which included the following two key terms:

"We reserve the intellectual property copyright to all designs/softcopies/material/photography/projects undertaken."

And

“We will proceed on the basis that this estimate is wholly acceptable unless advised to the contrary in writing before the work is undertaken.”

12. Each production estimate was reviewed by the respective Hotel and GHM and then approved. Specifically, for GHM, its Vice President, Ralf Ohletz Count von Plettenburg, reviewed each such production estimate and was aware of the terms in these production estimates under which the Wave Entities would fulfill orders placed with it.

13. After each photoshoot, the respective Wave Entity would complete post-production work on the raw Photographs obtained from each shoot, and the completed Photographs were provided to the respective Hotel and to GHM on a CD-ROM to make reordering of marketing collaterals requiring photographs easier on a going forward basis. The Hotels or GHM could simply pick which Photographs from Wave’s “proprietary library” of Photographs—as GHM’s Director and head of legal called them in an email to (a copy of which is attached Exhibit F)—that they wanted for each new order.

14. It was understood by GHM, the Hotels, and the Wave Entities that the Photographs were solely to be used for ongoing orders of marketing collaterals as part of the exclusive relationship that the Hotels and GHM had with the Wave Entities for marketing collaterals.

15. GHM and the Hotels understood that the Wave Entities owned the copyrights to the Photographs.

16. There are three specific examples I can give to illustrate that GHM understood this.

17. First, when GHM learned that a private club located within The Setai in The Setai Hotel in Miami (owned by the owners of The Setai Hotel but not under GHM Management), GHM informed The Setai Club that it could not use any of the Photographs. Kendall Oei, the Director of GHM and head of legal in charge of all contracts for the company, also contacted me, asking me if I could identify which photographs The Setai Club was using that belonged to the Wave Entities so that he could inform The Setai Club which photographs needed to be taken down. He also indicated that Wave, with the help of GHM might have to file an infringement lawsuit against the Setai Club, which could make the Wave Entities a “pile of money.” Copied on all of this correspondence was Hans Jenni, the co-founder and president of GHM. A true and correct copy of this correspondence is attached as Exhibit G.

18. The second example was when a restaurant managed by GHM, the T8, wanted to use photographs given to it by GHM after its management relationship with GHM ended. Mr. Oei indicated that the Photographs given to the T8 did not belong to it and that they belonged to “GHM/Waves” (Mr. Oei used this term because some of the photographs provided to this property had been taken by a Wave Entity (and therefore belonged to that entity) while other photos provided were not taken by any Wave Entities and GHM had the rights to them. This correspondence is important because it clearly indicates that Mr. Oei, the head of legal for GHM, was very clear that the Hotels under GHM management do not own the copyrights to the photographs provided to them. A true and correct copy of this correspondence is attached as Exhibit H. Third was the email attached as Exhibit F, where Mr. Oei referenced the Photographs as my “proprietary” library.

19. The Wave Entities were paid approximately S$250,000 (i.e., Singapore Dollars) for the Photography services provided over the ten-year period they worked with the GHM-managed Hotels. Over half of this amount was hard costs of travel, expenses, and wages. Therefore, the Wave Entities received only about S$125,000 for over 2,000 published Photographs. Each Photograph took approximately 7 hours of post-production work, meaning the Wave Entities were paid approximately S$62 (roughly US$45 at the time) per Photograph for the time taken for each photo shoot and in post-production.

20. On fewer than a handful of occasions during 2006 and 2007, while the GHM-Wave Entities exclusive business dealings were still ongoing, GHM informed me of promotional placements of a few Wave-owned Photographs in a few magazines (such as Interior Design Magazine). I approved such uses of the Photographs and provided the correct photo attribution I required for that approval. Because they were limited placements in finite magazines, and typically only involved use of one Photograph each time, Wave had no objection to such use and did not request or require any license fee for such limited promotional use.

21. At some point after GHM stopped working with me and the Wave Entities in 2007, unbeknownst to me, GHM disseminated the Photographs to numerous third parties and began using without authorization a number of the Photographs on a new GHM website that no Wave Entity or I created. In turn, some of these third party recipients, many of whom are defendants in this action, further disseminated the Photographs to yet other third parties. As I understand that numerous defendants have sought indemnity from GHM for Photographs they received and used without Plaintiff's authorization. When I first learned of other websites using my Photographs without authorization in 2011, I began to do research and ultimately found rampant infringement. From my research, the Photographs have been displayed on hundreds of websites without Plaintiff's authorization or compensation and continue to be seen by thousands of users on a daily basis.

22. One point of clarification I would like to make from my deposition in May, 2015, which I also corrected in my deposition on September 9, 2015, is that counsel for GHM seemed to be incorrectly suggesting that I was aware GHM was using my Photographs on its website as of 2002. This is not correct. I created a GHM website in 2005 and was not aware at that time of GHM's using any of the Wave photographs on a prior website. What I meant to say at my deposition was that at some point in or after 2012 (that is, after my working relationship with GHM and the Hotels ended) I learned for the first time that GHM had started using a new website that neither I nor any of the Wave Entities created for it, which included a number of my Photographs without my knowledge or authorization. That was the first time I learned of GHM's using any of my Photographs on a number of websites that neither I nor any of the Wave Entities created.

Assignment of the Copyrights to the Photographs to Plaintiff

23. The Wave Entities obtained copyright registrations from the United States Copyright Office for the Photographs (collectively and individually, "Copyrighted Works"). All of the copyright registrations for the Photographs have been duly assigned to, and are now owned by, Plaintiff.

24. Under Singapore law, as of August 1, 2008, the assets of Wave-S and The Wave Private Ltd. were owned by me and the assets of The Wave Studio Private Ltd. (fka The Wave Design Private Ltd.) were owned by The Wave Studio Private Ltd. These assets comprised all of the copyrights to the Photographs.

25. In September 1, 2011, I formed Plaintiff The Wave Studio LLC for the purposes of enforcing the copyrights of the Wave Entities against U.S. infringements. To effectuate that purpose, I and the Wave Entities entered into a series of assignments to effectuate this purpose. As part of that process, I executed a number of assignments in 2011:

- November 11, 2011 assignments by Wave-S and The Wave Private Ltd. to Plaintiff (the "2011 Wave-S and The Wave Private Ltd. Assignments")

- An assignment from Wave-S to The Wave Studio Private Ltd., which was drafted in 2011 but backdated by I to 2007, and an assignment from The Wave Private Ltd. to The Wave Studio Private Ltd., which was drafted in 2011 but backdated by I to 2008 (collectively referred to as the “Erroneous Backdated Assignments”).
- A November 11, 2011 assignment from I to Plaintiff (the “Lee Catchall Assignment”)
- A November 11, 2011 assignment from The Wave Design Private Ltd. (which by that time had changed its name to The Wave Studio Private Ltd.) to Plaintiff (the “Wave Design Assignment”)

26. The Erroneous Backdated Assignments I prepared in 2011 or 2012 at the suggestion of my attorney because we believed for some reason that I do not recall that we needed them for the chain of title to the copyrights to the Photographs.

27. The 2011 Wave-S and The Wave Private Ltd. Assignments, the Lee Catchall Assignment, and The Wave Design Assignment were recorded with the U.S. Copyright Office on or about November 15, 2011.

28. During the course of this litigation, however, I learned that the 2011 Wave-S and The Wave Private Ltd. Assignments, as well as the Erroneous Backdated Assignments, were ineffective, and therefore void ab initio, because at the time they were created in 2011 Wave-S and The Wave Private Ltd. had been dissolved years prior and their assets already transferred to me by operation of Singapore law or corporate resolution.

29. Because of this, I determined that the Lee Catchall Assignment needed to be clarified because, though it was a valid and effective assignment, it referenced the ineffective 2011 Wave-S and The Wave Private Ltd. Assignments. Plaintiff also learned that The Wave Design Assignment, while valid and effective, also needed clarification because it used as the name of the Assignor “The Wave Design Private Ltd.,” which was the correct entity but was not the correct name because in 2007 The Wave Design Private Ltd. had changed its name to The Wave Studio Private Ltd.

30. To clarify these errors and make sure the record with the Copyright Office showed the clear chain of title created by the Lee Catchall Assignment and The Wave Design Assignment, Plaintiff through its attorneys created a Corrective Assignment setting forth this chronology and clarifying the assignments (the "Corrective Assignment").

31. The Corrective Assignment merely made clear that the erroneous assignments were unnecessary and ineffective and clarified the errors made in the Lee Catchall Assignment and The Wave Design Assignment in order to clarify that the chain of title was clear. It also confirmed the nunc pro tunc assignments that I intended to enter into in November 2011.

32. In the process of preparing the Corrective Assignment, I also learned that the claimant in some of the copyright registrations for the Photographs inadvertently listed the incorrect claimant. At the time we filed the copyright applications, I did the best I could to confirm the information we put down was as accurate as possible. Once I learned, however, that the information we put down was not accurate in some instances, contemporaneously with the recordation of the Corrective Assignment, Plaintiff filed corrections with the Copyright Office to correct these inadvertent errors for the record. These forms filed with the Copyright Office are attached as Exhibit I.

I declare under penalty and perjury that the foregoing is true and correct. Executed on March 14, 2016, in Singapore.

Dear Richard

Please obtain samples of the remaining GHM/T8 collateral and send them to Junior at Waves Design so she can identify which photos if any belong to GHM/Waves.

I agree with Mr. Jenni that there is no need to collect and dispose of the existing stock of brochures. However, if T* wishes to make new brochures they must be careful not to use photos which belong to GHM. It does not matter that they can reproduce the photos easily, the key point is that they do not have the legal right to use those images.

The message to Walter/Katherine should be that you are not collecting the GHM produced collateral, but that once this original stock is exhausted it should not be reprinted. And they should not use any material belonging to GHM or mentioning GHM in future marketing collateral. No need to get into legal specifics.

Trust that is clear

Dear Mr.Oei,

There were about 500 T8 Brochure Covers and 640 T8 WiFi Promo Postcards @ May.31, 2006. There is also a brochure insert within the Fuchun Resort brochure which advertises T8 with a photo. Please clarify exactly what you want me to instruct Ms. Katherine Chen and Mr. Walter Zahner to do. Previously, Mr. Jenni advised that there was no need for me to collect the collateral while I was there.

If T8 wants to use the past / existing photos for future collateral they can easily copy these digitally or make new ones digitally and it would be difficult for us to prove otherwise.

Therefore, please clarify what you would like to me to advise Ms. Chen and Mr. Zahner.

Thank you and best regards,
Richard Hong

Dear Richard

In most of our hotel brochures, the photos used are NOT the property of the Owner, but are the property of GHM/Waves. Thus they are covered by the GHM license agreement and technically cannot be used whether in existing brochures or in new brochures. If T8 wants to produce new brochures they will have to take new photos and not use those that belong to us. As a courtesy you should mention this to Walter.

There still remains some GHM brochures and flyers at T8 to which I stated they could keep or dispose of at their discretion. However, I am not aware of any GHM-owned photographs - please clarify.

I did receive the T8 customer data base and this will be forwarded to GHM accordingly.

SEE REVERSE FOR IMPORTANT INFORMATION

This receipt is intended to show that the material described was received in the Copyright Office on the date given. When multiple claims are submitted by or on behalf of the same remitter, however, only one receipt listing only one title on the receipt will be provided.

Receipt of material is merely a preliminary step in the registration and/or recordation process. It does not imply that any final determination has been made in the case, or that the material is acceptable for registration.

Official action on an application for copyright registration or a document for recordation can be taken only after there has been a full examination of the claim following regular Copyright Office procedures. We are glad to discuss questions involving copyright registration on the telephone or in person-to-person conversations. However, all statements made during these exploratory discussions must be considered provisional, and are not binding either upon the applicant or upon the Office.
